Definitions

Key terms are as defined in the Children's Internal Protection Act.

Access to Inappropriate Material

To the extent practical, technology protection measures (or "internet filters") will be used to block or filter internet, or other forms of electronic communications', access to inappropriate information.

Specifically, as required by the Children's Internet Protection Act, blocking shall be applied to visual depictions of material deemed obscene or child pornography, or to any material deemed harmful to minors.

Subject to staff supervision, technology protection measures may be disabled for adults or, in the case of minors, minimized only for bona fide research or other lawful purposes.

Inappropriate Network Usage

To the extent practical, steps shall be taken to promote the safety and security of users of the Cragin Memorial Library computer network when using electronic mail, chat rooms, instant messaging, and other forms of direct electronic communications. Specifically, as required by the Children's Internet Protection Act, prevention of inappropriate network usage includes: (a) unauthorized access, including hacking, and other unlawful activities; and (b) unauthorized disclosure, use, and dissemination of personal identification regarding minors.

Supervision and Monitoring

Cragin Memorial Library staff have the responsibility to supervise and monitor appropriate usage of the computer network and access to the internet in accordance with this policy, the Children's Internet Protection Act, the Neighborhood Children's Protection Act, and the Protecting Children in the 21st Century Act.

Procedures for the disabling or otherwise modifying any technology protection measures shall be the responsibility of the Library Director or designated representatives.
