Notes:

- BOS voted and passed to defer taxes with application and the low interest programs. The Tax office has been working diligently to get the word out to the taxpayers. The last day to apply for the deferment program is July 1, 2020.
- Things that have changed per the exec order:
 - DMV registrations, renewals etc have been extended until June 8 – detailed information can be found on the DMV website
 - Most DMV offices have been closed
 - We are encouraging all taxpayers to pay by check or credit card. We are giving same day release one the transaction has been processed for all dmV transactions.
 - Courts have been closed until further notice

- Foreclosures – everything has been delayed. If someone falls into this category we are asking them to be patient for the courts to re-open and get a new date. They also should be contacting their own legal council for this updated information.
